ABOUT ME

Software engineer with a diverse background in frontend and backend development, design, marketing, product, and project management. Founded and grew my own company, Waynabox, and have experience in team management and improving business outcomes. Versatile and able to adapt to various roles and responsibilities, particularly in the early stages of a company. Consider all aspects of a project to make informed decisions and drive success. Jack of all trades.

EXPERIENCE

CO-FOUNDER & CTO

BeBetting JAN 2021 - NOV 2022

I joined a friend's project to create from scratch the whole high-performance technology solution in the cloud to create automated bets using real-time bots and scripting.

CO-FOUNDER & CTO

Waynabox JUN 2015 - NOV 2020

Founded a travel company with 2 friends. We entered in an accelerator called Lanzadera, where we learned everything about running a business. As a CTO and Board Member, I managed, together with other team leaders, the growth of the company from 3 founders on 2015 up to 30+ employees, closing funding rounds and developing Growth KPI to make us profitable.

SUPERPOWERS

Versatility

My diverse range of experiences makes me a valuable asset to any team, as I can bring a well-rounded perspective to problem-solving and project management.

Entrepreneurial experience

Founding and growing my own company demonstrates my ability to take initiative and make decisions under pressure. I also have experience in team management and improving business outcomes, which can be valuable in any organization.

Problem-solving skills

My consideration of all aspects of a project, including the product, marketing strategy, and technology, shows the ability to approach problems from a holistic perspective and make better decisions

Creativity

Also half an artist. I apply my creativity in every way. That means I usually face problem solving from an outside-the-box perspective.

SIDE-PROJECTS

PowerMenu

My roommate and I are creating a B2B SaaS service to create digital menus for restaurants using web-app technology. We also provide customer analytics and a personalized user experience.

Spotifundas

Launched an e-commerce of customized cases with a friend where you can add your favourite Spotify song. I've created a custom Wordpress plugin using Spotify API.

Canary weather

After living in Canary Islands for a year we created a webapp that would order in real time the cities of the island where the weather was better.
